Carroll Crushes Leo at Homecoming

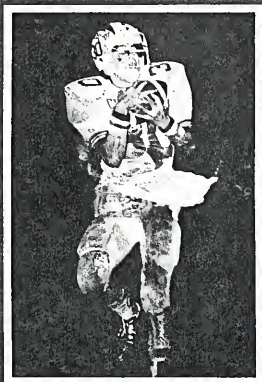

October 6th marked the end of an exciting and enthusiastic week as Carroll's fourth annual Homecoming was held. Halls were decorated, floats were constructed, and a pep session was held as students demonstrated their spirit for the big event.

The game was a giant success as the Chargers smashed the Levi Lions 41-0.

Darrell Nelson set a school record by scoring four touchdowns and Dennis McComb added two more as the Chargers played a brilliant game.

The Homecoming Queen was Kay Rachel, and the week ended with a dance in the Commons, following the game.

Cross Country and Football

Cross Country and Football ran strong through the leadership of the coaches, Mr. Merryman and Mr. McKinney. The teams began practicing in the middle of August which is indicative of the complete dedication necessary. The teams continued working hard throughout the fall, and this dedication helped to promote school spirit.

Carroll

The third annual Carroll Follies was held November 10 and 11. "Follies Goes Broadway" created a lot of enjoyment for all those fortunate to be in attendance. The performance consisted of a dance routine, skits, an organ solo, pantomime, impressions, parallel bar exercises, a cutting, singing, and a one act play "As the Stomach Turns." The 1972 Carroll Follies was the most successful and entertaining Follies yet.

Music Man Draws Three Capacity Crowds

The Music Man was performed on March 2, 3, and 4 to capacity crowds.

A double cast for the two lead characters was used for the first time. Brett Brown and George Cooper had the male lead, and Robin Robinson and Andrea Gillette had the female lead.

The play was under the direction of Mr. Mathew and Mr. Bauserman. The cast members spent weeks working on and practicing for the play. Through cooperation and hard work the play was a huge success.

Excitement

High for Miss Cavalier

The 1973 Miss Cavalier Contest was held on March 14th before an appreciative audience. The contestants and Cavalier staff worked hard in preparing the event.

The evening began with a dance routine. Then, the girls modeled and answered impromptu questions. Talents were displayed, and when the excitement reached its peak, Robin Robinson was proclaimed Queen. Kathy Gibbons and Jennifer Jackson were runners-up. Jennifer and Cheryl Sible were voted Miss Congeniality.

Cold and Wind Annoy Carroll Relays

The third annual Carroll Relays were held this year with Carroll placing second, finishing two points behind Heritage. Eight teams competed, including Bishop Dwenger, Columbia City, Garrett, Homestead, Northfield, and Wabash.

The day was sunny but cold and windy; however, the response by the fans was warm. Vicki Baughman was crowned Relay Queen after selling more tickets than Leanne Blessing, Sue Christlieb, and Donna Gross. The crowning was done by last year's queen, Janene Miller.

After the relays, the drama club presented a potpourri of sketches for the enjoyment of attending fans.

May 5th will be remembered as an "Evening in Paris" as this was the theme of this year's prom. Many came to enjoy the soft music, the food and beverages, the easy dancing and the coronation of the King and Queen, Ralph Linnemier and Cheryl Sible. Their court members were Julia McComb, Sandie Pentecost, Dan Gerard and David McAlexander.

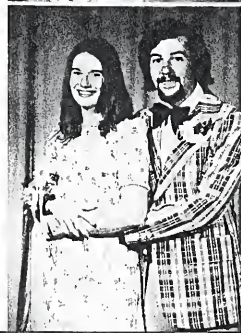

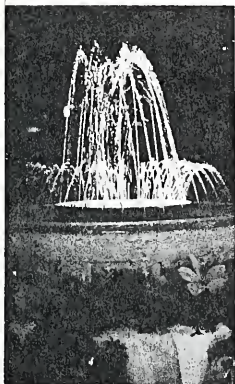

The evening ran smoothly, and the after-prom was held at the Shilo. More dancing, talking, laughing and eating completed an entire night that will be long remembered by everyone.

for Seniors' Final Days

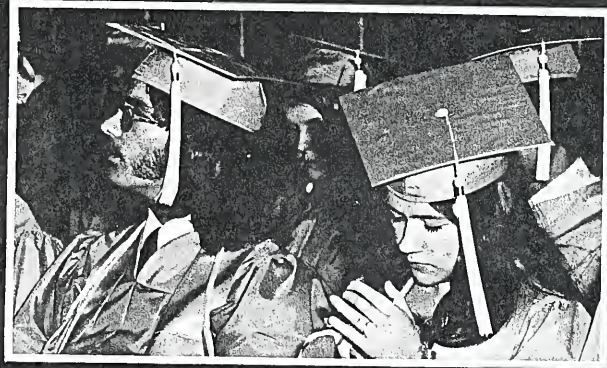

We were the first class to go through four full years at Carroll. We were the first freshmen at our school. Consequently, we shared the same bewilderment with the seniors on that opening day. There is much to remember, fake fire drills, bomb scares, drug searches, an actual barnyard, boring movies, great teachers, proms, homecomings, Myrtle's food, athletic events, etc. We could go on and on. It's all behind us now. "Memories, pressed between the pages of our minds." Ours is now to strive forward, as we attempt to contribute something to life. Our lives are beginning, and it's up to each individual to become as much as he can.

Administration Is Human

To maintain the smoothness of operation at Carroll requires the combined efforts of many talents. Members of the administrative staff are confronted with daily problems that have the urgency of an immediate solution.

Always rising to the occasion, Principal Harry Andes guides his staff with understanding and confidence. Whether it is a lost lunch ticket or the expansion of the Activities Period, time is made available to consider the concerns of the CHS student.

Better education through understanding the wants and needs of the student continues to be the goal of the Carroll administration.

Guidance and Counseling Always Available Maintenance and Meals a Must

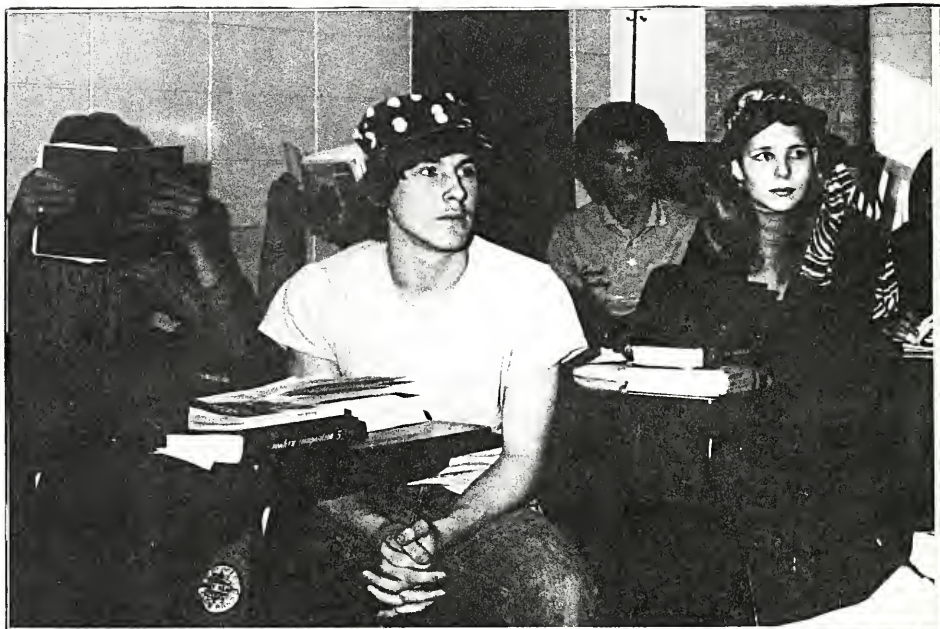

Our Guidance Department serves in many capacities. The choice of vocation, school of higher education, class schedule, SAT's and many other student concerns confront Mr. Johnston and Mr. Gerard daily. Time is always made available to reach a solution to any student problem.

Our maintenance department, headed by Mr. Bailey, continues to keep our school functioning and attractive. Constant favorable comment from visitors attests to this. And of course, we have our Culinary Department headed by Mrs. Marschand. Daily, the staff serves a balanced menu to fill those gigantic student appetites.

English Promotes Understanding

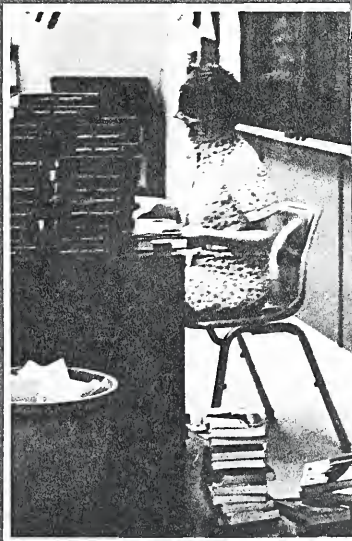

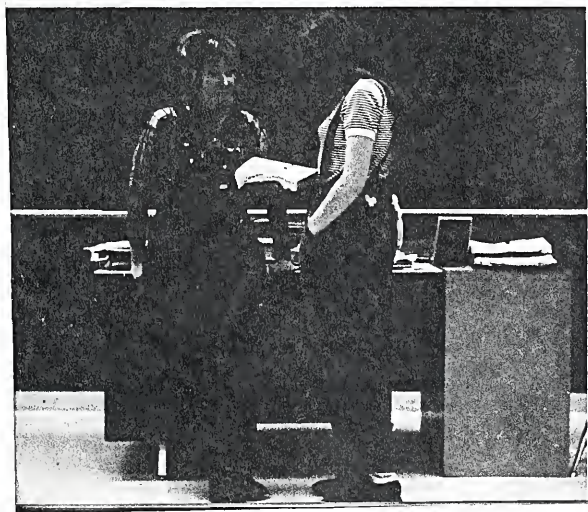

English, the cornerstone upon which all other subjects are built, is of great importance in our daily curriculum at Carroll High.

Innovative ideas were introduced in the English department to improve teaching approaches and to develop student intellectual maturity. A program of Phase Electives was introduced to underclassmen, and next year students will be able to choose from a variety of courses ranging from Creative Writing to the literature of Science-Fiction.

Students of Journalism become indoctrinated to the concepts of Radio and TV Broadcasting and made full use of our new, sophisticated TV and audio equipment.

Combined with these innovations and the traditional areas of the department, English promises to present a challenge to future students at Carroll.

Below Left: Mr. Erler is generally the epitome of the fashion scene, even in her overalls during school spirit days. Below: Mrs. Edwards carefully checks her book inventory.

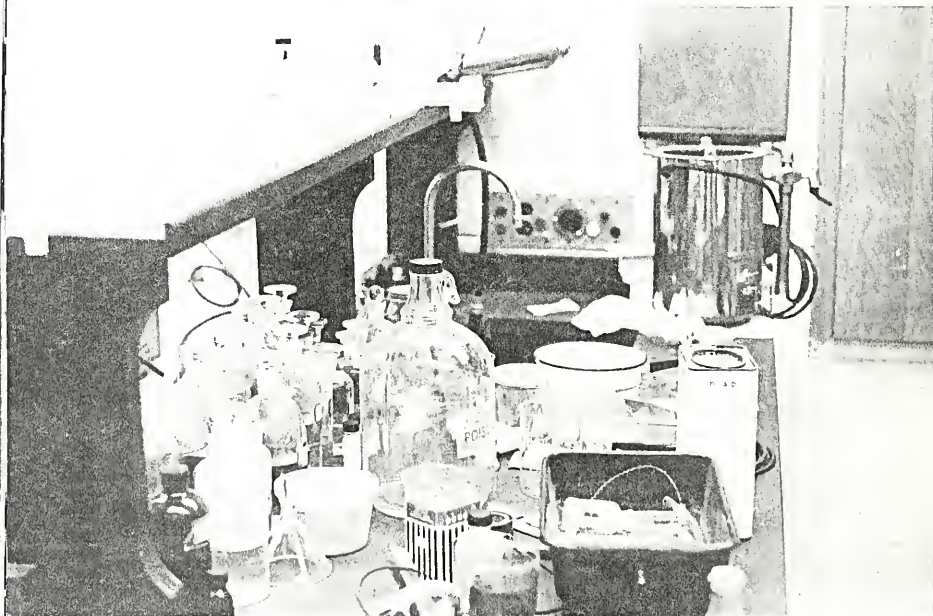

Field of Science Brings New Discoveries,

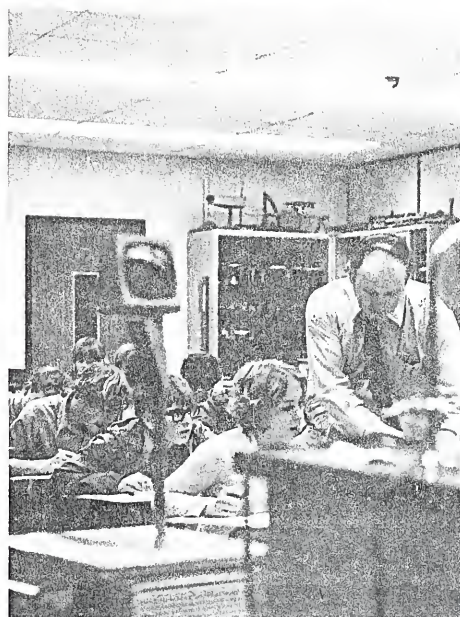

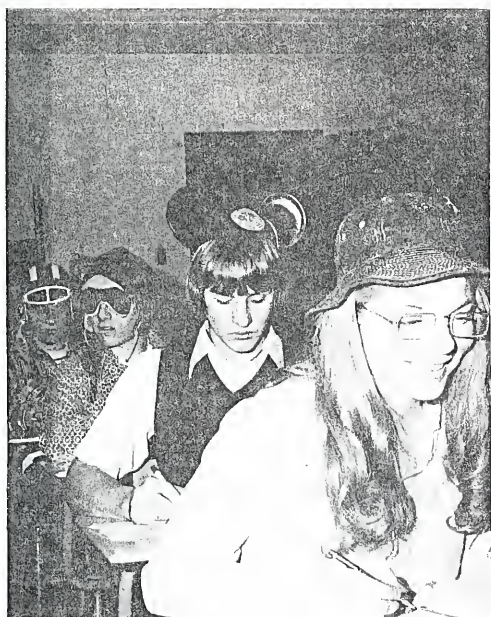

Science, today, is an extremely important part of the world. Each day new discoveries and vital research create information that students must learn. For each day there is enough new knowledge acquired to fill over 500,000 pages of a book.

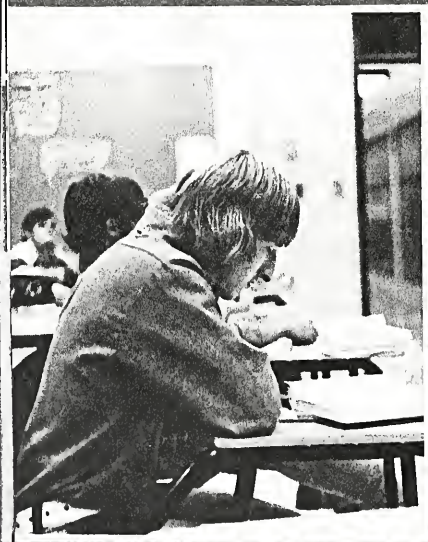

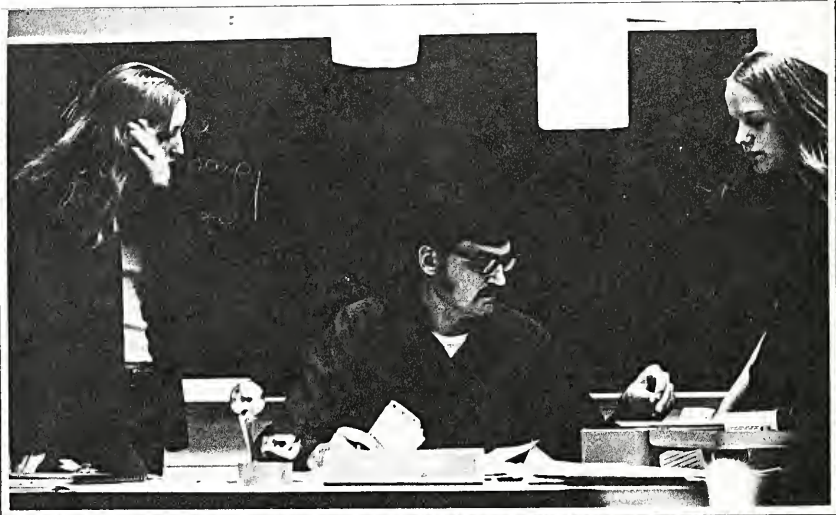

The CHS science department continues to alert students to our constant changing world. Mr. Birkey brings the most distant planet to our doorstep in the planetarium. Messrs. Shipper, Beard and Sloan see to it that biology, chemistry and physics are not mysterious but a part of our everyday life.

Speakers, Projects, Current Events . . .

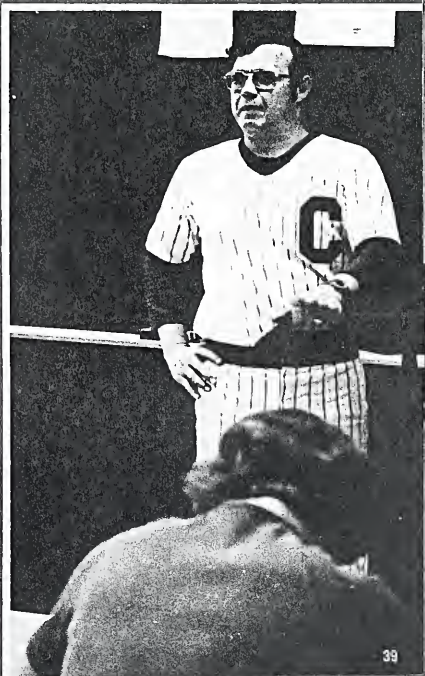

Social Studies

Basics of the social studies curriculum were supplemented with special projects in the classes.

World history classes examined the success and failure of various governmental positions in the world. Through group discussions and panels, students were exposed to present-day problems.

With the use of panels and guest speakers to study social orders, sociology students gained further knowledge of man's behavior and his activities. Students of psychology took an in-depth look at how man's personality is formed and gained further insight into themselves and others.

Economics revealed the problems of our fluctuating standard of living. Games, projects, simulation conditions in government classes brought to light methods of changing laws and the responsibilities of our electorate.

Mathematics \doteq Logic + Creativity

Try to imagine a point in space, or the opposite of a number. Picture a plane or a set of real numbers.

Mathematics requires not only the exactness of a science, but the creativity of an art. At CHS these qualities are combined, and the result is a highly successful math department.

Messrs. Merryman, Beard, Sloan and Kefer constantly combine their efforts to assure mathematics' students of problems requiring thought-provoking solutions.

Home Economics Gives Training for the Future

Home Ec. girls not only learn the basic skills of sewing and cooking but also develop an interest in areas such as interior decorating, home management, and child care. These girls can apply these skills for future years to come.

Mrs. Reece and Mrs. Luyben head this department. Mrs. Luyben has the 9th grade Home Ec classes and Mrs. Reece heads up the rest of the classes.

Future Stars Develop in P.E. Classes

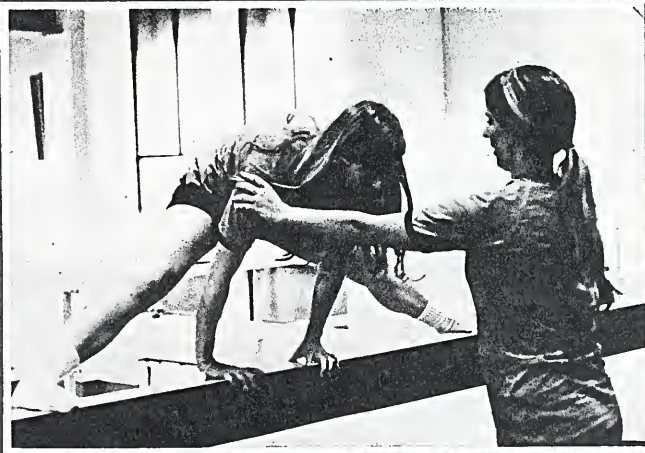

An excellent program of activities provided by the physical education department assisted in the development of mind, muscular power and coordination for the student.

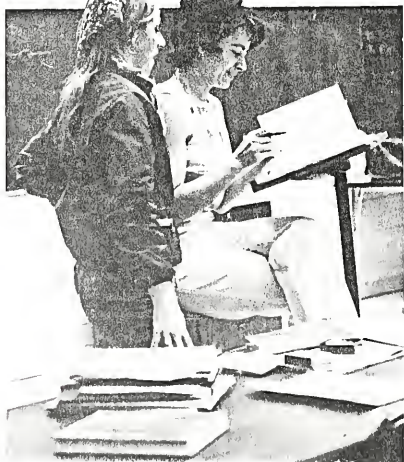

Responsibility to others is stressed in such team sports as softball, basketball and volleyball. Individual ability is discovered by participation in tumbling and track and field.

One of the more popular classes in physical education, although at times hazardous, is "warball." It provided an outlet for frustrations accumulated by the student trying to meet deadlines for themes, projects and academic assignments.

The Carroll physical education department continues to develop students attitudes towards physical fitness in future years.

Classes Get Down to Serious Business

Business Education offers the student some of the pragmatic aspects of functioning in the world of profit/loss and debit/credit. Besides the basic courses in typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping, students can become engrossed in business law and math and records keeping.

Mrs. Gaff, Miss Andrew, Mrs. Long and Mr. Bechtelheimer head this department. Whether Carroll students apply their learning directly or not, the skills developed will serve as an aid in any field of endeavor.

Industrial Arts Promotes "Learning by Doing"

In the Industrial Arts department we have these three areas: Electronic, Drafting, and Woods. Basic information and exploratory experience are parts of the varied areas. This class provides intensive training and leads to further specialization in the area of study selected by the student.

In this department we have Mr. Hall, and Mr. Morris.

Vo Ag Opens Doors to the Fields of Farming

This year of 1973 saw a fantastic increase in the cost of living. Food and meat prices climbed astronomically in the spring. The importance of the vocational Agriculture department became apparent, as students began to explore methods of reducing farm costs.

Art Students Develop New Talents & Skills

The art department provides an excellent opportunity for the art students at CHS to develop skills and creative imagination. Under the supervision of Mr. Walsh, the students work to improve their talents in classes of ceramics, painting, and drawing.

Foreign Language Lab Equipment Aids Individual Learning

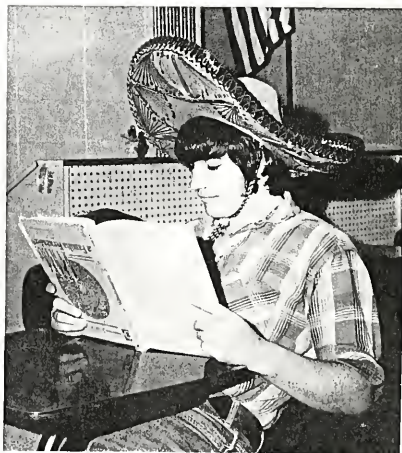

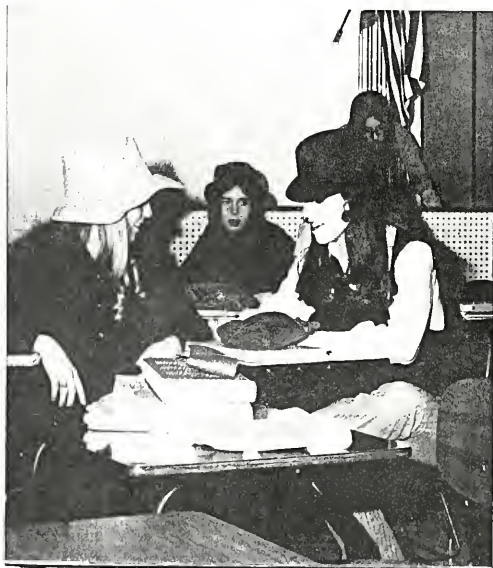

The study of foreign language allows the student to expand his knowledge of other cultures. By using the facilities of the language lab, the student can critique his progress and further improve his language skills.

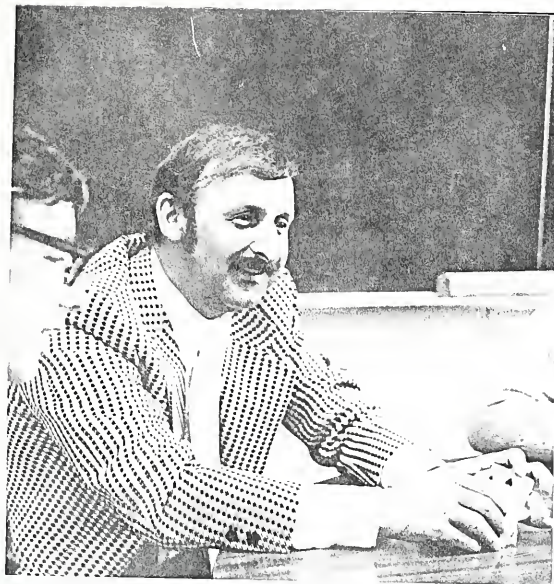

Some of our students actually experience living in foreign environments and receive first hand study of other cultures. Last summer Jim Ransbottom lived in Mexico. This summer five Carroll students are going abroad. Cathy Levander, Colleen Towns and John Wise are going to Lima, Peru for eight weeks. Tina Sitton and Lou Ann Lopshire will leave for Belo Horizonte, Brazil for five weeks.

The generosity of the Lions Youth Exchange Committee, District 25B consisting of Arcola, Huntertown, Leo, Gracill and Fort Wayne, makes this experience possible.

Mrs. Duff heads the foreign language department and is assisted in Spanish by Miss Everts. Mrs. Alter conducts classes in German and Latin.

Special Ed & Drivers Training

Mr. Etzler, pictured at left, brings many new approaches to his pre-vocational classes.

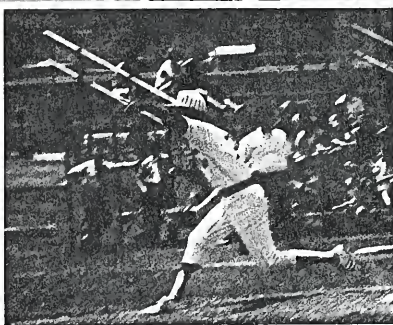

Summer brings an influx of students to Driver Education classes. This popular and important course is conducted, both in the classroom, and with on-the-road experience.

The Chargers were led by senior Ralph Linnemeier who secured all-conference honors while leading the harriers to a third place conference finish. All other squad members were underclassmen which points toward a promising future in Cross Country at Carroll.

Football Team Gains Experience . . .

The Carroll Chargers' football team under the helm of Coach McKinney had its ups and downs. In several games a few more FIRST DOWNS would have been helpful. One of the highlights of the season was the Carroll Homecoming game when the Chargers faced the Lions of Leo.

Homecoming queen Kay Roebel presided over her court and the fans witnessed an inspired Darrell

Nelson race to score four touchdowns, a Carroll record. The Chargers went on to crush the Lions 41-0.

Although there were other victories and defeats, the season can be best summarized by Coach George McKinney who stated, "The 1972 football season was a successful one in terms of gaining experience. The 1973 team will have 22 returning lettermen."

Two scalp-tingling losses, by one point, to Chrubusco and Dekalb disappointed the fans. But this was overcome by the thrilling 73-72 overtime victory over New Haven.

The highlight of the season happened at the Coliseum when the mighty Chargers defeated the highly-favored Norwell Knights in the County Tourney.

Wrestling Moves into CHS Spotlight

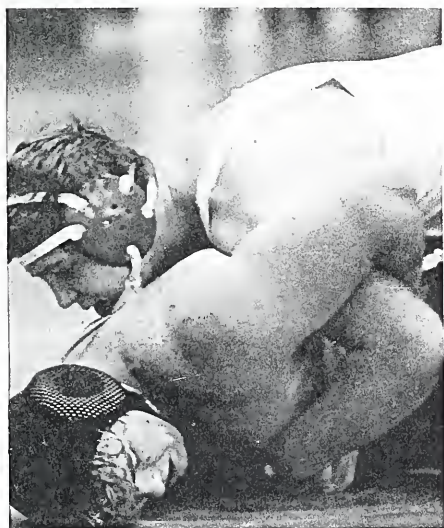

Wrestling is beginning to attract more Carroll fans. Coach Ed Fox put his team through an arduous Olympic-style training schedule. This training paid-off when Carroll hosted the ACAC tourney. In a Saturday filled with closely-contested wrestling, the CHS grapplers battled their opponents to the final seconds. The Carroll Chargers came to within one-point of defeating the Woodlan Warriors.

Four men qualified for the Sectionals, Lenny Yearling, Barney Dice, Tim Dice, and Mike Pullen. Wrestling is certainly a growing sport at CHS.

Golfers Wade-Thru Practice Win C. Noble Invitational

The Carroll golfers spent most of spring practice "wading" through the golf courses. When competition commenced, the team was better prepared for swimming than mashie shots and long drives. However, the team faced its competition and had a highly successful season.

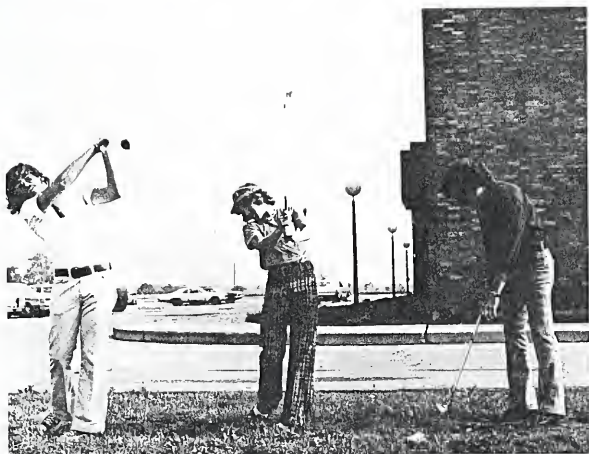

The site of Augusta Hills at Albion was the highlight of the golf season. The Charger linksmen faced 18 teams to come out number ONE in the Central Noble Invitational. Jim McCrady, Dan Gerard, and Mike Baciu led the Chargers to victory in this highly competitive meet.

The Charger linksmen placed 4th in the ACAC and 4th in the Sectional. The team finished 3rd in the Conference.

Cheerleaders Express Spirit and Emotion

After returning from "summer camp", the Carroll Cheerleaders were infused with enthusiasm. This enthusiasm infected the fans as time after time throughout the year the girls bounded-out and encouraged support for our teams.

By far it was the best year for our "Cheerleaders". Their hard work and dedication will be a challenge for future cheerleaders to meet. All CHS fans were certainly appreciative of the girls efforts and are looking forward to another "great" year.

Rainy Season Ends With 4-8 Record

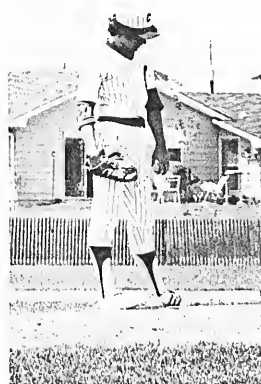

The 1972 Summer Baseball team posted a 4-4 record in ACAC Competition. This performance was somewhat disappointing because the team believed it could do better. However, it was encouraging that most of the players returned in 1973.

The spring and summer baseball team in 1973 had a rainy season cancelling a number of games. Although the team got a slow start, the Chargers were very impressive in the Sectional tourney at Columbia City, winning its way to the final game, only to lose 1-0 to Elmhurst. Next year holds promise of a better team, if the spring rains subside.

Yearbook Turns Over the Pages

Yearbook provides the Carroll students with many opportunities to express their creative talents. Besides the drafting of lay-outs, the cropping of pictures and the writing of copy, the staff ventures into the area of finances. Advertising is sold by the staff to a broad-range of sponsors. The annual "Miss Cavalier" contest becomes a financial success. Subscriptions from students are solicited. The 1973 staff can proudly state it met its cost obligations.

Each year the production of the Cavalier provides its moments of frustration. The major challenges of special effects, creativity, and photography are easily surmounted. But who on the staff can forget pouring over picture after picture trying to identify student after student? At times it becomes a masterpiece of detective work to track-down and get the right name with the right picture.

Editor David McAlexander, along with Associate Editors, Julia McComb, Cindi Lahr and the staff, met and conquered every challenge to see the 1973 Cavalier published.

Newspaper Staff Sets Pace

The Carroll Times staff published a newspaper every two weeks. In addition special publications captured the highlights of the Carroll year both in print and photography. Editor Kim Ford became the "High School Happenings" reporter for WLYV radio for the entire year. Her efforts were recognized by I & M Electric when she was awarded the super-editions of Webster's Dictionary and Roget's Thesaurus. Also Kim received a Kodak Instamatic camera.

Chief photographer James Moore and his staff captured many a news-worthy picture, and Hal Atkinson kept the Carroll Times in financial good health with his advertising know-how. Vicki Baughman made certain each lay-out page was set correctly. Kevin Ambrose lent his artistic talents to many a display. The expert reporting of Cathy Levander, Julia McComb and Brett Brown brought the news to the Carroll student body.

CHS Top Students Take Honors in NHS

To become a member of the NHS, students have to maintain a high degree of academic excellence for a required amount of time. More and more CHS students are rising to this challenge.

Student involvement was this years CHS Student Council goal. By sponsoring such activities as "Crazy Days" (including Sock it to 'em and hats-off), student enthusiasm and support was aroused. The Council sponsored Homecoming and helped to manage the concessions at sport's events and dances.

This year the National Forensic League was one of the most outstanding clubs at Carroll High School. The group's interest and enthusiasm, along with many hours of devotion and hard work, not only won trophies and ribbons, but earned it recognition from its fellow students.

At one time, the Speech Team ranked third in the state among all competing schools. Several students went to the state finals.

The Show Must Go On. . .

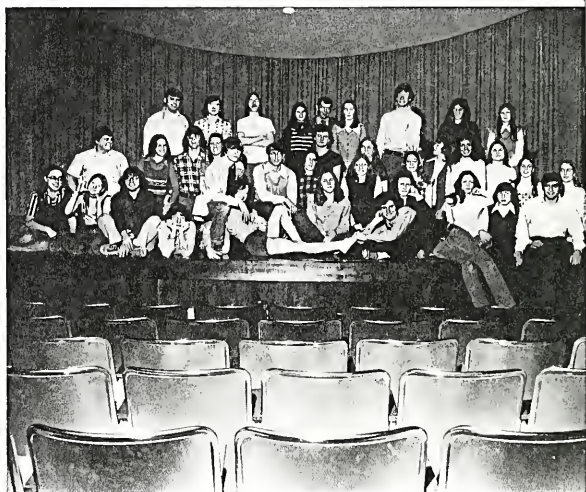

Always a spark that ignites student enthusiasm is the Drama Club. Dedicated students toil many hours and survive many hours of frustration to finally present a production. The coordination necessary for a top-level production requires the effort of many talents. Whether it's the backstage crew, lighting, music, sound, art, or the performers, all must exercise their utmost ability and cooperation in order to create the magic of theatre and entertainment.

Audiences of 1972-73 were treated to a variety of presentations, all thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated.

1973 witnessed the best supporting actor award go to Dave Baker, best supporting actress Kathy Schreffler, best actress Andrea Gillette and best actor award, Brett Brown.

The Drama Club looks forward to 1974 when each member will try his utmost to match and surpass the talents of 1973.

The Band brought many hours of enjoyment to its audiences during the entire school year. Whether it was at a rally, a concert, a play, or a graduation ceremony, the Band added the spirit or created the necessary mood.

The highlight of the year was the spring concert. Combined with the choir, the Band performed at top-level, and the audience leaped to its feet in appreciation with a standing ovation that echoed and re-echoed throughout the halls of Carroll High.

Need a Projector, Tape Recorder, etc. See AV

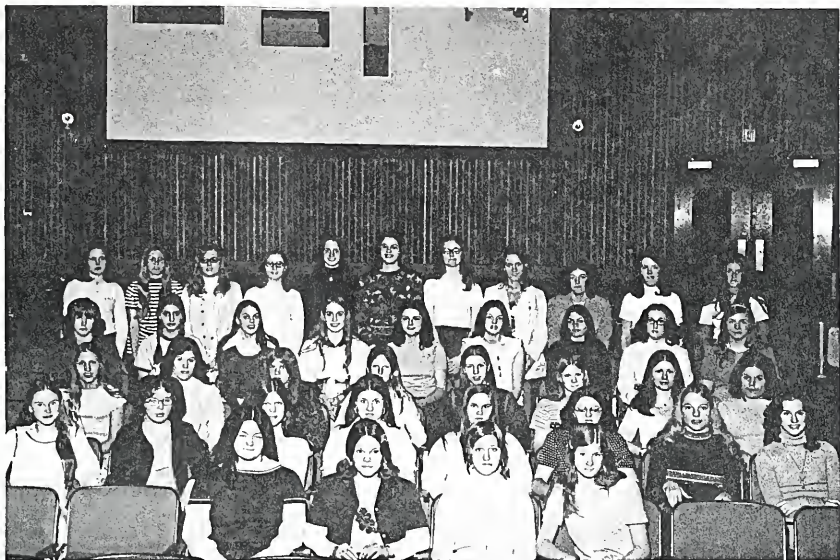

Audio Visual must supply the equipment necessary for classroom activities. The Carroll AV department has a multi-variety of tape recorders, film and slide projectors with required accessories. Students in AV are constantly shifting this equipment from classroom to classroom to make certain our teachers have what is needed.

Also, AV students have the opportunity to work in the many CHS productions. Lighting staging, the operation of the control booth require top skills. Y-Teens—Youth With a Purpose

The purpose of the Y-Teens is to serve and aid the less fortunate and to cope with the problems of young people. In 1973 the Y-Teens held gatherings at the YWCA in order to raise funds and to make plans. Our CHS young women entertained and served the needs of the elderly many times throughout the year. Carroll girls went to the Allen County Children's Home and presented a Fun And Sharing day for all the youngsters. Y-Teens are young women who believe in doing, not just talking.

Some of the Carroll High members of Y-Teens are: K. Miller, S. Jones, S. Barrett, D. Miller, K. Blessing, J. Wiseman, K. Etheridge, C. Martin, C. Dice, D. Gross, J. Hayes, K. Dice, D. Bamer, V. Drill Team Stays in Step

The Girls' Drill Team, along with co-captains Kathy Gibbons and Teresa Striggle and director Mr. Mathew, continued to build a solid foundation of drill routines and formations. Through the teams' coordinated efforts, the girls were able to develop precise maneuvers and precision marching.

The Drill Team performed with the band during CHS football and basketball half-times.

Kim Kurtz captained the Twirlers and put the girls through their paces as the batons flew, and the crowds cheered.

To demonstrate support for our Charger teams, the girls' pep block and the boys' cheer block were formed. No matter the scores, whether the Chargers were winning or losing, each member of the team knew that the pep and cheer blocks were behind him. The rafters ring and the stands quiver when their shouts of encouragement break the sound barrier.

The 1972-73 season witnessed many exciting athletic events at Carroll. The boys' cheerblock and the girls' pep block certainly contributed their share to make it all well worth the effort.

G.A.A. Volleyball Team Wins Sectional

The girls' volleyball team was successful this year in winning the DeKalb Sectional. The team was runner-up in its Regional at Goshen, losing to the team that went on to win at State.

The purpose of the volleyball team was to give the girls an opportunity to compete with other schools in an organized sport.

G.A.A. is an organization providing an opportunity for all girls in high school to participate in a recreational and intramural program. The program consists of softball, volleyball, archery, track, bowling and general activities.

The club is sponsored by Miss Andrews and Mrs. McAlexander. This year's president was Mary Shortgen.

FFA Is Farm Out

The Future Farmers of America face a dynamic, challenging future. The production of foods to serve the ever increasing population is a problem of crisis proportion. These young men are schooled to be prepared to meet this future. Modern technology and sophisticated hardware are needed. Training in this area is vital, and the FFA fully understands this.

The wonderful world of photography is rapidly invading the halls of CHS, as more and more interest is "developing."

With dark room facilities at their disposal, student photographers can "snap," "pop," and "print" all in one day.

Special effects and lighting techniques are part of the photography clubs training. Carroll High School can now provide the necessary equipment for the "complete" photographer.

Chess Club Adds New Challenges

ABOVE: Whether it's a pawn, bishop, knight or king, the members of the Chess Club are ready to "make their move." As each member well knows, that "move" could be disastrous. But then there is always the next game. ABOVE RIGHT: Mike Patton explains his master game plan to a thoughtful Brad Coon.

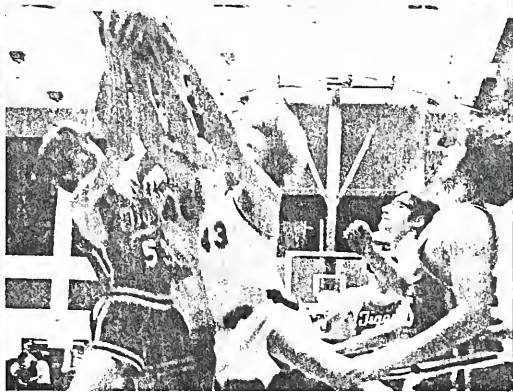

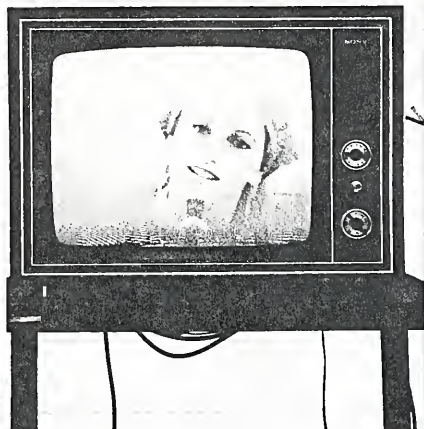

Ever since Bobby Fisher won the world's chess championship at Iceland, chess has become an increasingly popular game. Not to be outdone, CHS classrooms and study halls are finding more and more avid participants, plus a few "advisors."

The newly-formed Chess Club entered several tournaments, and in the all-county spring meet at New Haven, the team finished third.

REACH OUT!

"Now People" today are obviously different from those now people of days gone by. Concerns and issues have and will always vary, but a notable change in today's "Now People" can be seen in new areas of awareness. The study of our Earth continues, but you concentrate on the effect you and your society are having on the environment. You may dress in jeans and a faded denim jacket or you may wear a dark-colored sport coat and have a crew-cut, but you recognize each other as individuals and you listen. You reach out to those who need you and you respect those who protect you. Your awarenesses, your concerns are widening. You're the "Now People" our world is looking for. The Cavalier salutes the "Now People of all ages." Through your involvement in today's concerns, you've proven that you're willing to reach out . . . to get involved . . . and that affects us all.

Busy Places Secret Places
 Places one goes to live his life and dream his dreams.
 Today they're Images — sharp and clear.
 Indelibly imprinted on the mind.
 Tomorrow they'll dim in the haze of forgetfulness—
 Enchanted lands in a world of fantasy.
 Unless they're remembered forever in a book . . . Vividly.
 Realistically.
 Almost magically.

Cavalier 1973

To see life; to see the world; to eye-witness great events; to watch the faces of the poor and the features of the proud; to see strange things—machines, armies, multitudes, shadows in the jungle and on the moon; to see man's work—his paintings, towers and discoveries; to see things thousands of miles away, things hidden behind walls and within rooms, things dangerous to come to; the women that men love and many children; to see and take pleasure in seeing; to see and be amazed; to see and be instructed
